

I have always understood that states may enact any law as long as it does not lessen a federal law. The Wi Do-Not-Call list strengthens the federal law so it meets that criteria. We enjoy the peace of NOT receiving annoying phone calls and want to continue in this way. Do not infringe on our rights as a state to protect our freedoms.